Matt Schneider is the President of Forward Movement Training & Consulting, a nationally recognized company for their training, seminars, and leadership events. Since 2013, Forward Movement has traveled the country providing training and seminars in the Detection and Prevention of Targeted Violence, Active Shooter Response Options, and Behavioral Threat Assessments. Forward Movement also works with executive level corporate leaders providing Enhanced Leadership Courses.

Forward Movement's seminars are designed to Educate and Empower School Officials, Law Enforcement, and Community Stakeholders on the current trends surrounding Targeted Violence. The primary focus is how to Detect, Prevent and Respond to acts of violence through assessments and training.

The Detection and Prevention of Targeted Violence In the Workplace

"The key to getting targeted violence to stop, is to understand why they start."

IN THIS COURSE, we explore warning signs, concerning behaviors of employees or staff, and indicators of a potential attack. We show you how to recognize warning indicators and how to conduct proper assessments. Workplace attacks can be prevented, innocent lives can be saved, and help be given to those in need!
